Hello ladies,

I just wanted to let you know that the trial did start today; however, I will only need Mai to testify tomorrow. The cases were split, so the defendant charged with the crack cocaine is now scheduled for 7/29/10 and I am currently on trial with the defendant charged with the weed. So, Mai if you could come over to the Brooke courthouse room 21 on the 6th floor tomorrow morning that would be great!! We start at 9:00, I have one witness before you but he should be very quick, about 15 minutes. Thanks,

Tonya
